

Come away from OU with more than just a degree — enhance your experience with an internship!

Internships in Anthropology

An anthropology internship allows you to gain experience applying what you have learned in the classroom to the real world. Interns can enroll for 1 to 6 hours of credit. We have internships available in all four subfields plus museum studies. With permission, you can enroll in any of the following internships:

- ANTH 3810 - Internship in Linguistic Anthropology
- ANTH 3910 - Internship in Biological Anthropology
- ANTH 3920 - Internship in Museum Anthropology
- ANTH 3940 - Internship in Archaeology
- ANTH 3950 - Internship in Sociocultural Anthropology

Requirements

- 1) Anthropology major with junior or senior standing
- 2) Permission of the Internship Coordinator
- 3) Recommended GPA: 3.0 or above

Available internships include:

- Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History
- Oklahoma Archeological Survey
- Oklahoma Historical Society
- Community agencies or foundations
- Applied medical anthropology and health
- Linguistics research and fieldwork
- Historic preservation
- And many more!

For more information: Contact Dr. Kermyt G. Anderson, Internship Coordinator, at kganders@ou.edu or 325-9179. You cannot register for an internship until you have spoken with Dr. Anderson.